

Department of Botany, MCC conducted a webinar on “Bamboo – A grass with bright prospects” on 05th February, 2022 to bring awareness among the students about Bamboo and its importance in ecosystem management. Punati Sridha (Retd. IFS), Bamboo Society of India, gave a talk to UG and PG students and explained about the different types of bamboo, their significance in ecosystem restoration and their diversity including their nutritional and economical values.