

Talk by Prof Janaki Nair

The Departments of History and Communication Studies at MCC jointly organised a talk on 'The Urban Life of Caste' by Professor Janaki Nair on 9th February 2024. Prof Janaki Nair is a historian specialising in the history of Mysore & Karnataka. Prof Nair's work spans the sub-fields of legal, social & cultural history, urban studies, modernity & development, gender and public history, to mention a few. Her academic journey is marked by a commitment to recovering and amplifying marginalised voices and narratives within history. Her research often delves into the lived experiences of ordinary people, providing a nuanced understanding of social transformations. Prof Janaki Nair has taught at the Centre for Historical Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University and has significantly contributed to scholarship and public discourse.
