

IAF

Report on Guest Lecture by Alumnus on ACCA Course

On March 22, 2024, our institution was honoured to host Ms. Sakshi Sharma, a distinguished alumnus, for a guest lecture on pursuing the ACCA (Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) course and certification. Ms. Sharma graduated from our university in 2021 with a Bachelor's degree in International Accounting and Finance, and is currently working as analyst at Societe Generale Global Solutions . During the lecture, Ms. Sharma provided invaluable insights into the ACCA course structure, exam patterns, and study strategies. She emphasised the importance of time management and consistent preparation for the challenging ACCA exams. Additionally, she shared her personal experiences and key learnings from her ACCA journey. One of the key takeaways from the lecture was the immense value of the ACCA certification in the global accounting and finance industry. Ms. Sharma highlighted the numerous career opportunities available to ACCA members, including roles in public practice, corporate finance, taxation, and auditing, among others. The students found the session highly informative and engaging, as evidenced by the active question-and-answer session that followed the lecture. In conclusion, the guest lecture by Ms. Sakshi Sharma provided our students with a comprehensive understanding of the ACCA course and its significance in the accounting profession. Her firsthand experiences and practical advice will undoubtedly inspire and guide our students in their future endeavours.

