

Talk by Dr C S Venkiteshwaran

The Department of History, in association with the Film Club, organized a talk titled 'Film as History' on 25th September 2023 by Dr C S Venkiteshwaran, a film critic, curator, translator and documentary filmmaker based in Kerala. He has authored several books on cinema and media and is the recipient of the National and State Film Awards. His talk focused on how cinema became a visual archive of the history and screened the only surviving silent film, 'Jamaibabu'.

