

Demand and Supply - An In Depth Understanding

Mr. Suprotik Das is a highly esteemed guest faculty member who brought his expertise to enlighten and guide the third-year Communication Studies (hons) students in the subject of Economics. Students had the privilege of delving into the fascinating demand and supply model, along with the intricacies of shifts in demand and supply curves. Moreover, they were engrossed in understanding the pivotal concept of market equilibrium, where these forces find their harmonious balance.

Mr. Das's pedagogy goes beyond the theoretical realm, aiming to equip us with a profound comprehension of economics and its practical application in real-life scenarios. As aspiring learners, they were eager to grasp the principles that underpin financial literacy, a skill crucial for making informed and sound financial decisions in the future.

Under Mr. Das's expert guidance, students were able to gain a solid foundation in economics and also develop the critical thinking and analytical skills needed to navigate the complexities of the economic landscape.
