

Mount Carmel College, Autonomous
Department of Food Science and Nutrition

Guest Lecture

Date of Program : February 26,2024

Title of Program : "Breaking the Cycle: Innovative Approaches to Severe Acute Malnutrition and Advances in Public Health in India"

Target Group : 6th semester NDC NDZ and NDHD

Speaker Details : Ms. Madhu Mitha Manivannan, Ph.D Scholar,
Community Nutrition, Division of Nutrition, St.Johns Research Institute, Bengaluru.

Objectives :

The program aimed to address malnutrition comprehensively by focusing on the following objectives:

- Understanding the Malnutrition Landscape
- Targeting Severe Acute Malnutrition (SAM)
- Assessing Current Treatment Practices.
- Benchmarking against Global Standards
- Analysing Indian Treatment Protocols
- Exploring SJRI's Approach
- Envisioning Future Strategies:
- Identifying Career Opportunities

